SCOTT COUNTY WATERSHED

History

In 1990, 1993 & 1995 severe flooding occurred on Scott County urban streams. This flooding was a result of the conventional methods being used to deal with stormwater. These events and concerns with water quality in Scott County streams led to the formation of the Partners of Scott County Watersheds, an alliance committed to developing and implementing ways all citizens can be better stewards of our watersheds.

Since 1995, the group has been improving water quality in Scott County by providing residents, landowners, developers, environmental organizations, educators, and government officials with education, technical support, and financial assistance to promote and install best management practices.

The Regional Development Authority

The RDA, founded in 1989, is the gaming license holder for the Rhythm City Casino Resort in Davenport, IA. RDA operates similarly to a community foundation, with the exception that the RDA has a single income source – Rhythm City Casino Resort. Grants are made from current income, and the amount of money available for grants is tied to the casino gaming receipts. Grants are awarded to support a wide range of projects to create a more vibrant, inclusive, and growing community. The RDA Board of Directors, made up of community volunteers, has awarded a total of $70 million to a broad range of community building projects. Typically, RDA allocates one-third of available funds to each of the following categories:

- 1) Economic developments
- 2) Arts/culture/education, and
- 3) Human services
