Minutes of the March 27 Meeting

Discussion:

Linda Frederiksen moved to approve the minutes of the March 27, 2015 meeting. Motion was seconded by Thomas Gibbs. Motion carried unanimously.

Homeland Security/EMA/IMT Report-RAI FSX

Discussion:

Jerry reminded the group there will be a Social Media Class at the Rock Island County EMA Office on May 26th. The class will focus on the use of social media in disaster preparedness, response and recovery. He shared directly following the QCEPC Meeting there will be a QCDPC Committee Meeting to begin planning the 2016 Readiness Conference.

Chance reported anyone in need of an Active Shooter Tabletop Exercise for a hospital environment should consider Sickbay Security as an option.

Scott reported they will be holding a Full Scale Active Shooter Exercise May 13th into May 14th as an overnight event. There will be a large hospital portion including a Medevac in the Exercise.

RAGBRAI/BIX 2015 Planning

Discussion:

Dave reported they continue to meet regularly in preparation of the events. They will be reconfiguring the location of a medical tent due to the old Howard Johnson being torn down at 2nd and Iowa Street.

SECC Report-Alert Iowa

Discussion:

Denise reminded the group of the IDPH Statewide Communications Exercise May 5th thru May 7th. May 7th will be open to observers. On May 18th they will receive train the trainer training on Alert Iowa with the goal of having Alert Iowa implemented in all of Scott County on June 1st.

QCDPC Conference Review

Discussion:

Jerry reported they were pleased with the 2nd Annual Quad Cities Disaster Readiness Conference. If anyone has any comments, please let one of the committee members know as planning has begun for the 2016 conference.

Healthcare Coalition Update

Discussion:

AI reported the Coalition has been working on year end reports and the next year reduced grant cycle budget.

Chance shared their Coalition has an Isolation and Quarantine Exercise scheduled on May 19th.

Other Hospital, Healthcare, PH Reports

Discussion:

Kate shared at the beginning of April they held CPR training for their MRC volunteers. She reported they participated in a grant teleconference for preparedness which they learned Illinois preparedness funding should be level next grant cycle. Nita and Kate attended an Isolation and Quarantine workshop as well. Lastly, they have been celebrating National Public Health month with different activities.

EMS Reports-EMS Week Skills Rodeo

Discussion:

Kevin reported at the last meeting it was decided to table the EMS Skills Rodeo until possibly the Fall. A Spending Plan for the EMS Training Grant which is due May 18th was completed as well.

Chris updated the group on the issues discussed at the SE Iowa EMS Association meeting.

Fire Service Reports

Discussion:

Chief Washburn reported on two training opportunities. TEEX will be presenting Disaster Management for Public Services on June 18th and 19th. TEEX will also be presenting Operations and Planning for Hazards on September 15th, 16th and 17th. There are limited seats available. To reserve a seat, contact Robbin Dunn at the City of Davenport Public Works. Chief Washburn also shared that the Davenport Fire Department Administration offices have temporarily moved to the Kahl Building, 9th Floor while the renovation of the Central Fire Station takes place.

Law Enforcement/TSA/Intel Reports

Discussion:

Steffan announced he will be taking a new position at the Bureau. His ability to continue to participate in QCEPC meetings is unknown at this time.
